None

26/07 Replacement keys for Pavilion House

Members discussed various options relating to replacement keys to Pavilion House and noted the guidance from James Dowrick. Cllr Dellow then proposed, Cllr Day seconded and it was RESOLVED that Myriam Stirling should be asked to obtain two new complete sets, one set for herself and one set for the Town Clerk

26/08 OGS Garden

Members were updated on the dilapidations claim served on FTC by the OGS Trustees and noted that the matter was now in the hands of solicitors. Displeasure was expressed that the Trustees were still continuing with this unjustified claim and costing both the people of Fowey and the young people they were supposedly supporting significant amounts of money. Following discussion it was proposed by Cllr Gibbon, seconded Cllr Day and RESOLVED that the FTC solicitor should be instructed to draft a robust reply to the latest letter received from the Trustees solicitor stating FTC's final position and reiterating FTC's interest in purchasing the garden in order to protect it as a public asset.

26/09 Matters considered Urgent by the Chairman

None.
